ARTICLE 17 – CALL-IN

- 17.01 Call-In is a system by which employees indicate their availability for extra shifts.
- 17.02 The Employer shall first offer extra shifts to permanent part-time employees up to the full-time equivalency.
- 17.03 If the Employer is unable to obtain sufficient permanent part-time employees, the Employer shall then offer extra shifts to casual employees up to the full-time equivalency.
- 17.04 (a) If the Employer is still unable to fill the shifts, then the Employer shall offer the shifts to permanent full-time employees but at the overtime rates at time and one-half (1 ½) the regular rate of pay.
- (b) If the Employer is unable to fill a shift left vacant by an employee attending the ACP Course under Article 33, the Employer has the option, in this case only, to offer the available shifts to a permanent full-time or part-time employee at straight time.
- 17.05 Call – In System
- (a) The call-in system will be based on three (3) availability lists which will be prepared by both Area and province wide. In both cases, the lists will be by classification that is BLS (PCP) and ALS (ICP/ACP):
- (i) The first list shall include permanent part-time employees.
 - (ii) The second list shall include casual employees.
 - (iii) The third list shall include permanent full-time employees.
- (b) Employees will be given an opportunity to indicate their willingness to have their names placed on the availability lists. At the beginning of each month, employees may either have their name added to or deleted from the availability lists, with twenty-four (24) hours' notice.
- (c) An employee who places their name on an availability list shall provide the Employer with at least one contact number, but no more than two (2) contact numbers. If the employee is unable to be reached, the Employer is not obligated to wait before proceeding to the next name on the list.
- (d) The lists referred to in (a) shall initially be arranged in order of seniority. An employee who accepts a call-in shall be moved to the bottom of the availability list from which the employee was called. An employee who refuses a call-in shall be moved to the bottom of the availability list. If an employee adds their name to the availability list, the Employer shall place the employee on the availability list by starting at the top of each list and placing the employee immediately above the first employee on the list who is less senior than the employee being added.

- (e) Where the Employer has less than twelve (12) hours' notice of the need for a call-in, the Employer is unrestricted in offering the shifts.
- (f) Where the Employer has twelve (12) hours' notice or more, the Employer shall administer the call-in system based on the Area availability lists only, first by the classification being replaced (BLS/ALS) and then by the other classification. If no one on the Area availability list is available or can be contacted at the time of the call, the Employer can then offer shifts to employees on the provincial list.
