Article 1 – Shop Rules

- 1.01 Recognizing the importance of tidy, clean and sanitary practices by employees in their personal habits as well as in carrying out their duties, so as to insure the production of high quality food products, it is agreed that each and every employee will exert every reasonable effort to accomplish this goal.
- 1.02 The following practices are prohibited under penalty of suspension or dismissal after prior warnings;
- (a) Punching another employee's time card
 - (b) Tardiness or lateness
 - (c) Loitering, loafing or otherwise avoiding work
 - (d) Interfering with or hindering the work of their employees
 - (e) Fighting or rowdiness
 - (f) Use of foul, profane, or abusive language
 - (g) Driving recklessly or contrary to the traffic laws

“Employees will comply with the Good Manufacturing Practices as set out in the Food Safety manual.”

Article 2 – Recognition

- 2.01 The company recognizes the union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all its employees, including all plant employees, truck driver delivery employees, but excluding foremen, and those above the rank of foremen, office staff, merchandisers and those that work twenty(20) hours or less per week and students during recognized holiday periods.
- 2.02 Any employee hired as a student who is retained after the recognized holiday period, will as a condition of employment, become a union member and will pay union dues back to within thirty (30) days of his employment.
- 2.03 The company will not bargain collectively during the term of this agreement with any other labour organization affecting these employees.
- 2.04 In the event the company is bought by another company, employees will retain their seniority. In the event the employer moves to a new location, the seniority of the employees will also be retained.

Article 3 – Management Rights

- 3.01 Subject only to the provisions of this agreement, the management of the employer's business and the employment, direction, and supervision, layoff and discharge for proper cause of employees is vested in the employer and management.
- 3.02 (A) It shall be considered the right of the employer to suspend or discharge any employees for any of the following reasons: drunkenness or drinking alcoholic beverages while on duty, dishonesty, incompetency, discourtesy, absence without leave, misuse of company funds, property or equipment, direct refusals to obey orders, conviction of a crime and unsanitary practices. In all cases of suspension or discharge, the employer will immediately advise the plant steward.
- (B) The union further recognizes the undisputed right of the employer to operate and manage its business in all respects in accordance with its obligations and pursuant of its policies, and to make and alter from time rules and regulations to be observed by the employees which rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this agreement.
- (C) The management shall have the rights to terminate the employment of any employee engaging in any other major occupation or business to an extent that adversely affects such employee's efficiency.
- (D) Shop rules attach attached hereto as article 1 shall be strictly adhered to.
- (E) The management rights as outlined in this article shall be subjected to the grievance procedure.

Article 4 – Union Security

- 4.01 The company agrees that it shall be a condition of employment that any employee who at the date of the signing of this agreement, was a member of the union in good standing, shall maintain such membership
- 4.02 Eligible employees hired on or after the date of the Application for Certification, shall as a condition of employment become members of the union within ninety (90) days following the date of their employment, and shall thereafter maintain membership in the union in good standing. The company shall procure from such new employees, membership cards and initiation fees and forward them to the Financial Secretary of the union in the same manner as dues as set out in Article 4.03.

- 4.03 The company agrees to deduct from each bargaining unit employee's pay, and in the case of new employees, on the first (1st) pay day that dues are deducted following their membership in the union one-quarter (1/4) of the monthly union dues, and will submit the total sum of the amount deducted in any four (4) weeks to the Financial Secretary of the local on or before the 20th of each month on a form provided by him, if approved by the company.
- 4.04 Special assessments, if levied by the union, in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the union, will be deducted from members of the union upon proper notification from the union.

Article 5- Officers and Stewards of the Union

- 5.01 The union agrees to appoint or elect and the company to recognize stewards and officers of the union, on the need to deal with matters affecting employees of the company. A list of these stewards and officers will be supplied to the company. The company shall be advised of any changes in this list

Except as set out in this agreement, stewards and officers of the union shall not be allowed or subjected to different treatment than other employees by reason of their position in the union.

- 5.02 The company recognizes that stewards and officers of the union have duties towards and on behalf of the union, and are required at times to leave their jobs to investigate and process grievances or discuss with supervision other matters affecting employees.

The union recognizes that stewards and officers are employees and as such have jobs to perform on behalf of the company. When it becomes necessary for them to leave their jobs to attend to the above matters, they will be give their foreman as much advance notice as possible, and arrangements will be made by their foreman to leave their jobs with no loss of pay as soon as possible, but not later than the day such request is made.

- 5.03 Business agents for the union shall be allowed to enter the company's premises to discuss union matters with employees, provided he first makes his presence known to management, and that his presence will not unreasonably affect the operation of the business.

Article 6 – Grievance Procedure

- 6.01 Should there be any dispute arising out of the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this agreement or any clause or Article hereof, the matter shall be made to adjust such a grievance promptly to the satisfaction of both parties in the following manner:
- (A) The plant steward, and/or the business agent with or without the grieved employee shall meet with the manager, or his designated representative, with no loss of pay, no later than the working day following the request for such a meeting. The manager or his designated representative shall reply to the grievance in writing giving his answer to the dispute within two (2) working days after the above meeting was held. The grievance may be submitted in writing if so desired by either party.
 - (B) If the above reply does not settle the dispute to the satisfaction of the union, it may be referred to Arbitration as set out in Article 8 of this agreement.
 - (C) It is understood that the company may bring forward at any meeting with the officers of the union or with their agent, any complaint with respect to any employee, the conduct of the union, its officers or agent, and that if such complaint by the company is not settled to the mutual satisfaction of all parties concerned, it may be treated as a grievance and referred to Arbitration in the same way as the grievance of the employee.

Article 7 – Dismissal or Suspension

- 7.01 If any employee with seniority is dismissed or suspended for any reason whatsoever, and feel that he has been unjustly dealt with, he shall promptly notify the plant steward of the union, who shall if a grievance is to be filed, notify the company, in writing, within three (3) working days, after the receipt of notice (referred to Article 7.02) has been received by the plant steward stating the grounds of objection to the dismissal or suspension. It will then constitute a grievance and shall be dealt with according to the grievance procedure beginning with Step 1, as set out in Article 6. If it is found that he has been unjustly dealt with, he shall be reinstated with all rights accrued to him under this contract, or given such lesser penalty as may seem fair under the circumstances.
- 7.02 The company will notify the plant steward in writing within two (2) working days, if the employee with seniority is dismissed or suspended. Where notification is not given within two (2) working days, and a grievance is to be filed, it may be submitted within three (3) working days after receipt of notice is received by the plant steward.

Article 8 – Arbitration

8.01 (A) If settlement is not reached through the grievance procedure set out in Article 6, the grievance may be referred by the union or company to a single Arbitrator, in such cases the party referring the grievance to arbitration shall submit the names of the arbitrators it wishes to suggest to the other party. If agreement cannot be reached on the appointment of the single arbitrator within five (5) working days, he will be appointed by the Minister of Labour for the Province, upon request by either party.

(B) The decision of the single arbitrator shall be deemed to be the decision that will settle the dispute and such decision shall be final and binding on all parties concerned.

(C) The arbitrator shall meet the parties within ten (10) days following the date of his appointment and the parties further agree that a decision be rendered within five (5) days after this meeting.

(D) The cost of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by both parties, each party paying its own costs for their representatives and witnesses.

Article 9 – Hours of work and overtime

9.01 The normal work week shall be thirty-four (34) hours per week made up over not less than three (3) days.

9.02 The company agrees to guarantee each bargaining unit employee who is not on lay-off, thirty-four (34) hours pay at their regular rate. This guarantee will be equally reduced by the number of hours an employee absents himself from work for any reason. All overtime shall be offered by Seniority to those able to perform the work.

9.03 An overtime rate of time and one-half (1 ½) hours will be paid for all hours worked in excess of the work week referred to in Article 9.01 excepting Driver Salesmen.

- 9.03 The guarantee shall be the same in weeks in which the paid holiday falls as in others. Pay received for public holidays shall be regarded as part of the guarantee, unless such pay is for hours, which fall outside an employee's schedule.
- 9.05 Any employee who after leaving the company premises is especially called in at anytime outside his normal working hours, shall be though when the emergency is over; but shall nevertheless, be paid for a minimum of four (4) hours at his regular rate from the time spent on the emergency.

Article 10 – Public Holiday Pay

- 10.01 Any employee who works on a public holiday as set out in Article 10.3 shall be paid at the regular rate for the hours worked.
- 10.02 The company agrees to pay all employees covered by this agreement eight (8) hours and on-half (1/2) pay at their regular rate straight time for each of the public holidays set out in article10.3.
- 10.03 The Following are the public holidays set out in Article 10.1
